Public Notice- March 17, 2020

In response to the global CoVid-19 pandemic, we at the Regina Treaty Status Indian Services, Inc. are altering the ways we provide service to our clients and community. Our commitment is to ensure at the very least, the essential services we provide to the community, are delivered in the safest and most effective manner to our clients, our community and our staff.

For the week of March 16-20, 2020:

- Public usage of our facility is limited to students who attend the Treaty Four Education Centre and clients who have appointments with specific staff members.
- New clients will need to phone first and book an appointment and do an over-the-phone intake session.
- There will be no walk-in services available.
- All of our evening, after hours and group programs are suspended until further notice.
- We will be contacting all our existing clients by phone to discuss your needs and our ability to provide services at this time.
- We will be providing information to all our clients about emergency services available and emergency phone numbers.
- Our general phone number is 306-522-7494. You can phone this number at any time, leave a message and we will return your call. If you have specific concerns about your situation and are an existing client, please call your staff member contact as soon as possible.
- Until further notice, RTSIS staff will be available to work with you by phone.
- Specific services such as Good Food Box will be communicated directly with clients.
- We will be providing regular updates on our FaceBook page.

As we all know, the situation regarding COVID-19 in the city of Regina is constantly changing. Our staff meet every morning for a communications and assessment meeting. We will inform the community if there are any alterations to our essential services plan.

We encourage all of our clients to feel free to call their RT/SIS contact with any concerns or issues that need to be addressed. Good and effective communication is essential for all of our well being.

Please stay safe, stay well and take care of yourself and your families.
