

WELLNESS & ADDICTIONS COUNSELLOR

Regina Treaty/Status Indian Services Inc. (RT/SIS) is a non-profit organization that provides a range of programs and services to the First Nations population in the City of Regina. RT/SIS is an affiliate organization of the Touchwood Agency and the File Hills Qu'Appelle Tribal Council that serves 15 First Nations in Southern Saskatchewan and within the Treaty Four Territory.

Under the supervision of the Family Wellness Unit Coordinator, the Wellness and Addictions Counsellor provides prevention, assessment, referral, counselling, and follow-up services to individuals and families affected by substance use. The counsellor assesses client needs and collaborates with integrated programming staff to develop, monitor, and evaluate case plans. They offer confidential, culturally competent support through individual, family, and group counselling, and ensure appropriate referrals to treatment and prevention services. The counsellor works closely with program staff to maintain service quality and standards.

Applicants should possess the following:

- Four-year undergraduate degree in Social Work or an Addictions Counselling certification, with a minimum of one year of experience in addictions services
- Certification in Safe Food Handling, WHMIS, CPR, and First Aid
- Knowledge of The Saskatchewan Residential Services Act and the Youth Criminal Justice Act
- Knowledge of the Saskatchewan First Nations Child and Family Services Group Homes and Community Care Programs Standards of Care Manual
- Knowledge of the City of Regina's community programs and continuum of care
- Proficiency in software programs (e.g., MS Office, internet applications)
- Experience with documentation and data analysis
- Experience in group program development and facilitation, with an understanding of group dynamics
- Ability to conduct assessments and develop treatment plans
- Demonstrated experience in case management, conflict resolution, and critical thinking
- Excellent interpersonal, communication, administrative, and organizational skills
- Reliability, punctuality, and flexibility to work varied hours and adapt to changing responsibilities
- A valid driver's license and access to a reliable vehicle
- Ability to pass a security screening and maintain confidentiality
- Knowledge of First Nations values, culture, traditions, and governance
